WORKSHOPS

King's High School

We are delighted to invite Year 5 girls to attend our series of Virtual Inspire Workshops. Our educational programme is designed to inform and inspire Year 5 girls in a variety of specialised subjects, and give a taste of the 'Spirit of King's'. To register, please contact marketing@kingshighwarwick.co.uk or fill in our online form at bit.ly/InspireWorkshops2021.

CUDDLY CONONDRUMS; BIG, ETHICAL QUESTIONS ABOUT OUR FURRY FRIENDS

20 JAN 5PM-6PM

This session is a fantastic opportunity to ask some of the big ethical questions. Do animals have the same rights as humans? If not, why not? And if so, what needs to change in the modern world? Have your thinking stretched and look at the world in a new way in Miss Blackie's philosophical masterclass.

TELLING A STORY THROUGH MUSIC

11 FEB 5PM-6PM

How can sounds that aren't language tell a story? Is it even possible for melody and rhythm to create a narrative? Prepare to be inspired as musical maestro Mr Laing explores thought-provoking ideas and gets you thinking about music like you never have before.

EXPLORING LANGUAGES

23 FEB 5PM-6PM

Mrs Gibson and Mrs McRoberts will take you on a journey into languages, introducing you to fascinating new ideas that help you to understand different cultures. This is for all students wanting to be true global citizens in a changing world.

INVESTIGATING INDICATORS

2 MAR 5PM-6PM

Calling all scientific experimenters! This session will prove that science isn't just for laboratories; it is all around us, providing the basis for everything we see, hear, touch and taste. Come along to Mrs Sims' session and find out more.

THE GREAT ART QUIZ

11 MAR 5PM-6PM

Dr Barwell will lead you into a new world of visual art, introducing you to new images and sharing his infectious passion. This is for all art fans, quizzers, and those who want to learn new things beyond normal classroom learning.

DESIGN A NEW SOCIETY

16 MAR 5PM-6PM

The exciting thing about this session is that there are no limits. You are invited to come up with new ideas, wowing Mrs Wellman (our Head of History) with thoughts about how we can improve society as a whole. This is for all deep thinkers, and anyone who enjoys playing with ideas.
